

Hana Matelová

Nickname:	-
Nation:	Czech
Date of birth:	8 June 1990
Height:	160 cm
Place of birth:	Holešov, Zlín Region, Czech Republic
Playing hand:	right
Style of play:	Shakehand grip, offensive playing style
Coach:	-
Current world ranking (week 51 - 2024):	79
Current European ranking (December 2024):	17
Clubs as the active player(s): (France)	ASRTT Etival Clairefontaine

Senior Career Highlights

2024:

- October: Clinched the European Championship title in Women's Doubles alongside partner Barbora Balážová, marking a pinnacle in her career.

2021:

- February: Secured a bronze medal at the Europe Top 16 Cup, demonstrating her competitiveness among Europe's elite players.

2019:

LIEBHERR

- December: Reached the quarterfinals in Women's Doubles at the World Tour Grand Finals, showcasing her prowess on the international circuit.

2018:

- Season 2018–2019: Triumphed in the French Championship with club ASRTT Etival Clairefontaine, contributing significantly to the team's success.

2015:

- June: Earned a bronze medal in the Women's Team event at the inaugural European Games in Baku, Azerbaijan, highlighting her role in elevating Czech table tennis on the continental stage.

2013:

- October: Achieved a bronze medal in Mixed Doubles at the European Table Tennis Championships, further establishing her as a formidable competitor in European tournaments.

Breakthrough Moments and Achievements

2024:

- October: Winning the European Championship in Women's Doubles with Barbora Balážová stands as a career-defining achievement, reflecting her dedication and skill at the highest level.

2015:

- June: Securing the bronze medal at the European Games in Baku was a significant milestone, marking her emergence as a key player in European table tennis.

Medals and Titles

- European Championships:

2024 Linz, Gold medal – first place, Doubles

LIEBHERR

Junior Career and Early Achievements

Specific records of Matelová's junior career are limited; however, her early involvement in table tennis and subsequent rise to the national team indicate a strong foundation and notable successes during her formative years.

2024: Detailed Overview and Achievements

Medals and Titles

- October: Crowned European Champion in Women's Doubles with Barbora Balážová, a testament to her enduring excellence and partnership on the court.

Breakthrough Moments and Achievements

October: The European Championship victory in Women's Doubles with Balážová not only added a prestigious title to her career but also inspired a new generation of Czech table tennis players.

Biography and Career

Hana Matelová began her table tennis journey in her hometown of Zlín, Czech Republic. Her dedication and talent propelled her to the national team, where she has been a stalwart presence. Throughout her career, she has competed in top-tier European leagues, including the French Championship with ASRTT Etival Clairefontaine, contributing to their 2018–2019 season victory. Her international experience and consistent performances have solidified her reputation as one of Europe's leading table tennis players.

Early Life and Background

Born on June 8, 1990, in Zlín, Czech Republic, Matelová developed a passion for table tennis at a young age. Her early training in Zlín laid the foundation for a successful career, characterized by discipline and a relentless pursuit of excellence. Her rise through the national ranks reflects her commitment to the sport and her country's table tennis legacy.

LIEBHERR

Playing Style and Personality

Matelová employs a right-handed offensive shakehand grip, utilizing equipment such as the Butterfly HARIMOTO INNERFORCE ZLC blade and TENERGY 05 rubbers, which complement her aggressive playing style. Her game is marked by powerful topspins and strategic placements, making her a formidable opponent. Off the table, she is known for her professionalism, dedication, and sportsmanship, earning respect from peers and fans alike.

Legacy and Future Goals

As of December 2024, Hana Matelová's legacy is highlighted by her European Championship victory and multiple international representations. Looking forward, she aims to continue competing at the highest levels, with aspirations to secure a world championship medal and further contribute to the development of table tennis in the Czech Republic.

Conclusions

Hana Matelová's journey from a young enthusiast in Zlín to a European Champion exemplifies dedication, skill, and perseverance. Her achievements have significantly impacted Czech table tennis, inspiring future generations. With a career marked by resilience and excellence, she continues to be a beacon of inspiration in the world of table tennis.

LIEBHERR