

European Table Tennis Union

MONTREUX (SWITZERLAND)

中国建设银行
China Construction Bank

LIEBHERR

MONTREUX
RIVIERA
pure inspiration

TIBHAR

红双喜
DHS

Fairmont
LE MONTREUX PALACE

JIA NAN YUAN

AGE	39
EU RANKING	3
NATION	FRENCH
PLAYING STYLE	OFFENSIVE
PLAYING HAND	RIGHT
CLUB	POITIERS TTACC 86

DATE OF BIRTH	11 MAY 1985
HEIGHT	172 CM
PLACE OF BIRTH	ZHENGZHOU, CHINA
GRIP STYLE	SHAKEHAND
COACH	LIANG GE
WORLD RANKING	17
CLUBS AS THE ACTIVE PLAYER(S)	POITIERS TTACC 86

MEDALS AND TITLES

2024:

Winner - Europe Top 16 Cup (Montreux, Switzerland):

- Jia Nan Yuan won her first Europe Top 16 Cup title in Montreux in January 2024, becoming the first woman from France to reach the highest step on the medal rostrum.

Women's Singles, Paris Olympics:

- Jia Nan Yuan reached the Round of 16 in the women's singles at the Paris 2024 Olympics, where she was defeated by Hina Hayata of Japan with a score of 4-0.

Gold Medal - French National Championships:

- Jia Nan Yuan has a history of strong performances in the French National Championships, maintaining dominance in the singles and doubles categories.

Bronze medal - third place, Team, Busan:

- Jia Nan Yuan was part of the French team that secured a bronze medal in the team event at the 2024 World Championships held in Busan, South Korea.

European Championships:

- 2022 Munich, Gold medal - first place, Mixed doubles
- 2023 Malmö, Bronze medal - third place, Team

Europe Top-16:

- 2024 Montreux, Gold medal - first place, Singles

Jia Nan Yuan's junior career does not have widely documented or publicly recognized achievements in major international events. While she trained in the highly competitive Chinese table tennis system, records of her specific junior accolades (such as national or international titles) are not readily available in trusted sources.

PLAYING STYLE AND PERSONALITY

Playing Style:

Jia Nan Yuan combines aggressive offensive play with exceptional technical precision. Her forehand loops are powerful and strategically placed, while her use of short-pimpled rubber on the backhand allows her to neutralize opponents' spins and create tactical variation. This versatility makes her effective in both singles and doubles formats.

Personality:

Yuan is indeed resilient, competitive, and highly dedicated. Her mental toughness has been a hallmark of her career, enabling her to thrive under pressure in high-stakes matches. Additionally, her leadership qualities are evident in her performances in team events, where she often steps up in crucial moments to guide her team to success.

BREAKTHROUGH MOMENTS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

2024:

Europe Top 16 Cup Victory:

- Winning the Europe Top 16 Cup in Montreux marked a defining moment in Yuan's career. Her commanding performance against top European players demonstrated her tactical mastery and resilience. This victory was a significant milestone in her career, showcasing her skills against Europe's best players.

Paris Olympics:

- Jia Nan Yuan reached the Round of 16 in the women's singles at the Paris 2024 Olympics, where she was defeated by Hina Hayata of Japan with a score of 4-0.

2022:

European Championships:

- Jia Nan Yuan won the mixed doubles gold at the 2022 European Championships in Munich, Germany, partnering with Emmanuel Lebesson.

2020:

- She made her Olympic debut at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics.

2011:

- Gained French citizenship, allowing her to represent France in major international competitions.

Transition to France Jia Nan Yuan moved to France in 2003 at the age of 18. She adapted to a new environment, balancing her rigorous training with cultural integration. Her eventual French citizenship in 2011 allowed her to represent France internationally, where she quickly became a vital team member.

CAREER

Jia Nan Yuan, born on May 11, 1985, in Zhengzhou, China, is a professional table tennis player representing France. She began her career in China, moved to France in 2003, and gained French citizenship in 2011. Known for her technical mastery and adaptability, Yuan has been a multiple-time French national champion, a European Mixed Doubles Champion (2022), and a Europe Top 16 Cup winner (2024). Her contributions to the French national team include securing medals in major championships and enhancing the country's global presence.

LEGACY AND FUTURE GOALS

Legacy:

Jia Nan Yuan is celebrated for her significant contributions to French table tennis. Her European Championship victories, consistent international performances, and leadership in team events have elevated France's status on the global stage. Yuan's achievements inspire younger athletes, particularly women, highlighting the possibilities of dedication and adaptability. She is recognized as a role model for her professionalism, resilience, and ability to thrive in diverse competitive environments.

Future Goals:

As of December 2024, Yuan remains focused on competing in international tournaments and maintaining her elite status. She is dedicated to mentoring the next generation of French table tennis players, sharing her experience, and fostering talent. Additionally, she aims to prepare for potential participation in the 2028 Paris Olympics, with aspirations to add more medals to her already impressive career.

SOCIAL MEDIA

- Instagram: @jianany