CAREER

Born on 30 July 1998 in Slovenia, Darko Jorgić developed through the national system and quickly emerged as a standout junior on the European circuit. His early rise was marked by strong youth results and a seamless transition to senior competition, where he became known for his aggressive playing style and tactical intelligence. By 2025, Jorgić had established himself as Slovenia's leading table tennis figure, reaching a career-high world ranking of No. 6 and claiming multiple Europe Top-16 titles. He remains a consistent presence at the top level of the sport, competing regularly at WTT, World Cup, and World Championship events, and anchoring the 1. FC Saarbrücken squad in Champions League play.

LEGACY AND FUTURE GOALS

By the end of 2025, Darko Jorgić is firmly regarded as Slovenia's most successful male table tennis player in the modern era – the first to reach the world's top 10 and a multiple Europe Top-16 champion. His continued presence at top-tier international events and leadership at 1. FC Saarbrücken reinforce his lasting national and European impact.

Looking ahead, Jorgić aims to compete for major ITTF titles such as the World Championships and World Cup, climb further in the world rankings, and secure additional Champions League honours with Saarbrücken. His recent contract extension signals a focused push through 2027 to achieve both club and international milestones.
