- Captured gold in doubles at the Nigeria Open and represented Portugal at the Rio Olympics, highlighting her rise on the international stage.

CAREER

Born in Anshan, China, Shao Jieni began her career in Beijing before moving to Portugal at age 16 to pursue professional development. She obtained Portuguese citizenship in 2015 and has since become a regular member of the national team, representing Portugal at the Olympic Games, European Championships, and across WTT/ITTF events. Alongside her national duties, she competes in the French Pro A league with ASRTT Étival-Raon and maintains a steady presence on the international tour.

LEGACY AND FUTURE GOALS

Shao is regarded as one of Portugal's leading female players, respected for her longevity, adaptability, and role in elevating the national team's profile in Europe. Looking ahead, she aims to remain active on the WTT circuit, pursue deeper runs in major events, and continue contributing to Portugal's team successes.
