CAREER

Kristian Karlsson (born August 6, 1991, in Trollhättan, Sweden) began playing table tennis at the age of 8. At 16, he moved to Helsingborg to train with BTK Rekord, later joining Halmstad BTK in Sweden's top league. His club career includes successes with AS Pontoise-Cergy (France), Borussia Düsseldorf (Germany), and GV Hennebont. He won the men's doubles world title in 2021 with Mattias Falck and earned an Olympic team silver medal in Paris 2024. In 2025, he returned to the German league with TTC OE Bad Homburg before signing with Borussia Dortmund for the 2025/26 season. He remains an experienced and consistent competitor across WTT and ITTF events.

LEGACY AND FUTURE GOALS

As of December 2025, Karlsson stands as one of Sweden's most respected international players of his generation. His legacy includes a World Championships gold in doubles, multiple European medals, and Olympic silver in the team event. He continues to play a key role in Sweden's national team, mentoring younger players and delivering results on the WTT circuit.

Looking ahead, Karlsson aims to push for deeper runs in singles at major WTT tournaments, help Sweden maintain its position among the world's top teams, and contribute to Borussia Dortmund's success in domestic and European club competitions.
