PLAYING STYLE AND PERSONALITY

Mittelham is a right-handed shakehand grip player, known for her aggressive all-round attacking game and precise tactical placement. She excels in both singles and doubles formats, combining consistency with explosive forehand shots and an intelligent backhand game. In 2025, she demonstrated resilience with a return to form following injury, contributing to major team wins and deep tournament runs. Off the table, she is respected as a team leader, valued communicator, and strong presence on social media platforms.

BREAKTHROUGH MOMENTS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

CAREER

Nina Mittelham, born 23 November 1996 in Willich, Germany, rose through the junior ranks with major European Youth Championship victories. Since joining Germany's senior squad, she has earned continental golds in team, doubles, and mixed events. Mittelham has been a reliable performer for TTC Berlin Eastside and a regular competitor on the WTT circuit. In 2025, she solidified her status as one of Europe's most respected players through her European Team title and a runner-up finish in the continental singles championship.

LEGACY AND FUTURE GOALS

As of December 2025, Mittelham stands as a central figure in modern German women's table tennis. Her impact spans junior and senior titles, leadership in Bundesliga and European competition, and Olympic representation. Looking ahead, she aims to win a senior singles title at the European or World level, improve her global ranking, and maintain her consistent presence across WTT events while mentoring younger teammates and promoting the sport nationally and abroad.
