CAREER

Rachel Moret (born 23 November 1989 in Morges, Switzerland) is one of Swiss table tennis's most accomplished female players, transitioning from tennis to table tennis at age 12 and advancing through junior ranks to the Swiss national team by age 18. She has claimed multiple Swiss national titles across singles, doubles, and mixed events since her first championship in 2009. Moret has competed extensively on the ITTF/WTT international circuit, including Olympics (Tokyo 2020), European Top 16 Cup, World Championships, and numerous WTT feeder and challenger events. Her 2025 season was marked by national dominance and solid international participation, showcasing sustained competitiveness well into her mid-30s.

LEGACY AND FUTURE GOALS

As of December 2025, Rachel Moret stands as one of the most accomplished Swiss table tennis players in history, with ten national singles titles, an Olympic appearance, and a landmark international victory at the 2016 Chile Open. Her consistent presence in major events like the Europe Top 16 Cup, World Championships, and WTT circuit reflects both her longevity and competitiveness at the elite level. Looking ahead, Moret remains committed to extending her international impact, aiming to build on her world ranking and continue representing Switzerland with distinction in high-level global competitions.
